

Invocations for the settling of a debt

Transliteration Allaahumma-fee bihalaaika 'an haraamika wa 'aghnee bifadhlika 'amman siwaaka. Translation O Allah, suffice me with what You have allowed instead of what You have forbidden, and make me independent of all others besides You.

Transliteration Allaahumma 'inne 'a'oothu bika minal-hammi walhazani, wal'ajzi walkasali, walbukhli waljubni, wa dhala'id-dayni wa ghalabatir-rijaali. Translation O Allah, I seek refuge in You from grief and sadness, from weakness and from laziness, from miserliness and from cowardice, from | being overcome by debt and from being overpowered by men (i.e. other people).

“O Allâh! In Thy mercy do I hope, therefore do not hand me over to myself for even the period of the wink of an eyelid. And reform for me all my matters, there is none worthy of worship save You”.

One who is overpowered with debts should say:

“O Allah! Suffice me with your ḥalal [sustenance, and make me thereby independent] of what you have made Ḥaram; and make me self-sufficient of everyone besides you.

“O Allah, the One who removes worry, takes away grief, the Answerer of the call of the hard pressed, the Most Beneficent in this world as well as the hereafter, and the One of intense mercy in both [the worlds]! You are the one capable of showing such mercy upon me through which You may make me independent of everyone besides You.

“O Allah, Owner of the kingdom! You give kingdom to whomsoever You desire, and snatch it from whomsoever You desire; and You give honour to whomsoever You desire, and disgrace whomsoever You desire. In Your hands is all goodness. You have power over everything.

You are the One to enter night into the day, and day into night; and You take something having life out of that which has no life, and You take something with no life out of that which has life; and You provide for whomsoever You wish without count.

“O Possessor of vast and intense mercy in the world and hereafter! You give of both [the worlds] to whomsoever You wish, and withhold from whomsoever You wish. Shower upon me such mercy, through which You make me free of want from everyone besides You”.
